PROSECUTION REOPENED

1. In view of the Appeal Brief filed on 28 January 2010, PROSECUTION IS HEREBY REOPENED. A new ground of rejection is set forth below.

To avoid abandonment of the application, appellant must exercise one of the following two options:

(1) file a reply under 37 CFR 1.111 (if this Office action is non-final) or a reply under 37 CFR 1.113 (if this Office action is final); or,

(2) initiate a new appeal by filing a notice of appeal under 37 CFR 41.31 followed by an appeal brief under 37 CFR 41.37. The previously paid notice of appeal fee and appeal brief fee can be applied to the new appeal. If, however, the appeal fees set forth in 37 CFR 41.20 have been increased since they were previously paid, then appellant must pay the difference between the increased fees and the amount previously paid.

A Supervisory Patent Examiner (SPE) has approved of reopening prosecution by

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

2. Applicant's arguments filed on 28 January 2010 have been fully considered but they are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
3. Claims 1-36 are pending.
4. Claims 1-36 are rejected.

Claim Objections

5. Claims 1, 8, 35 and 36 are objected to because of the following informalities:

Claim 1 recites "the message" in line 12, which appears to refer to the preceding "the outgoing message" in lines 11-12, and should be changed accordingly.

Claims 8, 35 and 36 are object to for the same reason set forth in the objection of claim 1 above.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

7. Claims 1-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "the context information" in line 13. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. It's not clear if it refers to "context information" recited in "storing context information" in line 1, "obtaining ...

Art Unit: 2464

context information” in line 9, or yet another instance of context information. It is noted that line 11 recites “adding ... the obtained context information”. If the limitation “the context information” in line 13 refers to the same, it should be clarified to recite “the obtained context information”. If so, the claim recites obtaining context information, adding the obtained context information in an outgoing message, and receiving a response to the outgoing message, the response contains the same obtained context information; the outgoing message is destined to a destination node, and the response is from the same destination node. In other words, it is claimed that the destination node is to provide a response to a message, the response having the same context information contained in the message. Why?

Claims 2-9 are rejected as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, namely claim 1.

Claim 10 recites the limitation “the obtained context data” in line 2, and “the context data” in line 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for these limitations in the claim. It’s not clear if both limitations refer to context information in the obtaining step of claim 1.

Claim 11 recites the limitation “the context information” in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 11 recites the limitation “the presence of context information relevant to the layer within the message” in lines 7-8. It’s not clear which is within the message—context information or the layer.

Claim 11 recites the limitation “the context” in line 9. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 12 recites “determining whether the context information of the layer is to be restored based in part on the context information of the layer”. If both references to context information are the same, it’s not clear how the determining is based on context information that is yet to be restored. It would be logical for context information to be restored before it can be used as a basis for determining. Yet the claim recites determining whether context information is to be restored based on the same context information, which has not yet been restored.

Claims 13-17 are rejected as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, namely claim 11.

Claim 18 recites the limitation “the context information” in lines 11-12. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. It’s not clear if it refers to “context information” recited in “storing context information” in line 1, “obtaining ... context information” in line 8, or yet another instance of context information. It is noted that line 10 recites “adding ... the obtained context information”. If the limitation “the context information” in lines 11-12 refers to the same, it should be clarified to recite “the obtained context information”. See similar discussion in claim 1 above.

Claims 19-26 are rejected as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, namely claim 11.

Claim 27 recites the limitation “the obtained context data” in line 2, and “the context data” in line 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for these limitations in the claim. It's not clear if both limitations refer to context information in the module for obtaining context information of claim 18.

Claim 28 recites the limitation "the context information" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 28 recites the limitation "the presence of context information relevant to the layer within the message" in lines 6-7. It's not clear which is within the message—context information or the layer.

Claim 28 recites the limitation "the context" in line 8. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 29 is rejected for the same reason set forth in the rejection of claim 12 above.

Claims 30-34 are rejected as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, namely claim 28.

Claims 35 and 36 are rejected for the same reason set forth in the rejection of claim 1 above.
